MR. LASSITER WILL PRESENT MR. BRYAN

Fourth District Congressman to Introduce the Great Commoner at Exposition To-Day.

BOTH MEN ARE DISCHARGED

Participants in Fight at Fireworks Plant Before Mayor.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch,]
PETERSBURG, VA., May 29.—Congressman Francis Rives Lassiter accepted this afternoon an invitation from President Harry St. Georga Tucker, of the Jamestown Exposition, asking him to introduce William Jennings Bryan when he speaks to-morrow at the exposition, the occasion being Patrick Henry Day.

Major Lassiter left for Norfolk at 740 this afternoon. In a telegraphic correspondence with President Tucker, Major Lassiter stated that he would accept, provided the subject matter of his remarks in introducing Mr. Bryan was left entirely to his own choice, and the invitation was renewed. A telegram renewing the invitation was received this afternoon.

Both Are Discharges.

Both Are Discharged.

The discharge of both parties was the result of an investigation in the Mayor's Court this morning of the light at the fireworks factory in Blandgord Monday afternoon between F. F. Warner, the foreman, and Lovy Evans, and Warner, the foreman, and Lovy Evans, a young white man, who, according to the evidence, had been discharged by the foreman and ordered from the premises. In the fight that finally resulted Evans was bedly beaten over the head with an iron bar, and Warner was stabled in the leg. The evidence did not prove who made the advance, but when factory employes reached the men Warner was standing over Evans with one hand on his throat and the other holding the hand in which Evans held the knife. The case was called held the knife. The case was called yesterday, but Warner was unable to appear. Evans was present with his head heavily bandaged. Warner had sworn out a warrant charging Evans with felonious stabbing with intent to kilf, to which Evans replied with a cross-warrant, charging Warner with felonious assault with an Iron bar. [Special to The Times-Dispatch.] GATE CITY, VA., May 29.—Sheriff GATE CITY, VA., May 29.—Sheriff B. J. Broadwater and Commonwealth's Attorney J. F. Sergent left to-day for Texas to bring back L. K. Garber, who seven years ago killed a man named Maness. Garber is held at Greeneville, Texas, and the officers go armed with a requisition from Governor Swanson. Garber's arrest was brought about in a singular manner. His team became frightened by a train and ran away. He sued for damage, alleging that as a result of the runaway he was hurt and permanently lamed. The railroad company, learning that he was a cripple before the accident, sent a man here to obtain evidence of the fact. This led to his arrest for the murder.
